METHODISTS DISCUSS RED CHINA AND U. N.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP) — Communist China's admission to the United Nations should depend on whether it lives up to international obligations, a national church leader said Thursday night.

The Rev. Charles P. Taft, of Cincinnati, a vice president of the National Council of Churches, said there are a number of conditions that should be fulfilled before the Chinese Reds are recognized in the world peace organization.

His comments came in explaining a recommendation by a council study group that "steps should be taken toward the recognition of Communist China."

Explains Stand Taft emphasized that the council's recommendation did not mean that immediate recognition should be given. Rather, he said, the Chinese Reds should be made to prove that they are the "de facto" government and that they control "practically the entire geographical area" they claim.

Taft spoke at the 91st annual conference of Central Pennsylvania Methodists.

At its business session, the conference named these delegates to the church's jurisdictional conference at Washington, D. C., next year:

Dr. Wertz Heads List The Rev. Dr. D. Frederick Wertz, president of Lycoming College, Williamsport; Rev. Dr. Edgar Henry York; Rev. Dr. John B. Howes, Wesley seminary professor, Washington, D. C.; Rev. Dr. Frank W. Ake, Williamsport; R. F. Rich, Woolrich; Mrs. John Hilliar, Bellwood, and Edgar Baker. Delegates deferred action until next year on a proposal to establish a home for the aged at Harrisburg.

The conference completed selection of delegates to the church's general conference next spring by naming Paul C. Webb of Bloomsburg.

SAYS RED MIGS LIKELY FROM NORTH KOREA

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Communist MIGs that shot up an American patrol plane over the Sea of Japan were more than likely North Korean, Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy says.

McElroy told a news conference Thursday he bases that opinion on the direction from which the planes came. In the area of the attack, 85 miles east of Wonsan, the jet fighters could have been manned by North Koreans, Red Chinese, or Russians. Planes of all three carry the Red Star insignia seen on the attackers.

McElroy said it was ridiculous to raise a fuss about whether the American patrol plane was adequately armed or not. Its World War II vintage guns "are not going to knock off a MIG anyway," he said.

Have Photograph

The defense secretary said the really important thing about the incident was that the U.S. Navy plane was on a peaceful mission over international waters and was jumped by "an irresponsible pair of fighters."

The U.S. plane's tail gunner was severely wounded by the attacking jets, and his gun was knocked out before he could return the fire. Crew members agreed the attackers were Soviet-built MIG-15s or MIG-17s.

Other gun turrets on the plane had been disarmed so radar and cameras could be installed.

A photograph of the enemy planes which one of the crewmen snatched in the confusion of the attack could pin down the nationality of the planes beyond doubt. The picture is being sent to Washington for evaluation.

He added that pupils generally seemed interested in them and that teachers found the programs helpful in supplementing regular classroom instruction on science. Pupils often took notes during the telecasts and used those notes in subsequent discussions in the classrooms on the

FIRST 3-WAY WORLD SERIES SEEN FOR 1962

NEW YORK (AP) — Baseball's third major league has three target dates. In 1960 it hopes to line up its player talent. In 1961 it plans to start operation. By 1962 it thinks it can compete with the existing majors in some type of series.

"First things have to come first," said Bill Shea, chairman of Mayor Wagner's Baseball Committee and a prime factor in lining up the proposed new baseball league.

"The most important thing is to get organized. We expect to do that before July 15. We expect to be in operation by 1961. It is my idea that by 1962 we should be able to compete with the other leagues on an even basis."

Won't List Cities

Shea, of course, is an incurable optimist. He spoke Thursday at a news conference called to announce the names of the three most important backers of the New York franchise.

One of those associated with the proposed New York team, Donald Grant, a member of the board of directors of the San Francisco Giants, disclosed that a nucleus of league cities already exists. He said they are screening other applicants.

However, all concerned refused to identify the other cities. Just how far the workers in other cities have gone is difficult to establish. Shea said they would be identifying themselves within a few weeks.

Cities On Likely List

Toronto, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Houston, Fort Worth-Dallas and New York have been the cities most frequently mentioned in connection with the third league.

Gerald Moore, chairman of the Minneapolis Major League Baseball Committee, said investors in prospective teams probably would be identified in 10 days.

In Dallas, Stanley McIlvaine, general manager of the Dallas club of the American Assn., said: "We are definitely interested in a major league franchise and have informed Mr. Shea that we are ready to meet at any time to discuss it."

Have Possible Site

The New York owners, disclosed by Shea, were listed in three groups, each of which would have a third interest. He said their interest is contingent upon the city's building a new ballpark on the old World's Fair site in Flushing Meadows. Mayor Wagner has said the city would build such a park if a league is formed with responsible backing.

Mrs. Charles Payson, sister of John Hay Whitney, U.S. ambassador to Britain, heads one group with which Grant is connected. Mrs. Payson owns stock in the Giants which she would have to sell if the team becomes a reality.

Plenty Of Players

Mrs. Dorothy Killam, often identified with efforts to buy the Brooklyn Dodgers before they moved to Los Angeles, heads another group.

Dwight Davis, whose father donated tennis' famous Davis Cup, is linked with George Walker, whose father founded golf's Walker Cup, in the third group.

In Pittsburgh, Branch Rickey, veteran baseball executive who now is chairman of the board of the Pittsburgh Pirates, said the third league is inevitable. He said there are "plenty of players to go around."

Taneytown Lions Work On Calendar

The Taneytown Lions Club is planning a 1960 community birthday calendar. Members are soliciting for listings of birthdays and anniversaries of residents of the community and for dates of meetings, suppers, carnivals and other functions of organizations.

Listings will cost 25 cents each, calendars, 50 cents. The profit will be used for Lions' charities.

ators who had voted for him. "I have done the best I know how to do — to protect and defend the national security even when that was not the recognized, nor easy, nor popular course of action at the time," he said.

"I leave with confidence that history will be just."

The outcome had been regarded as in doubt right up to the last, and it hung in the balance almost until the final vote was recorded. Johnson immediately asked that the President be notified, a customary courtesy to speed papers to the President once his nominations are confirmed.

In this case, however, Senate attaches said that as soon as the President is officially notified of the Senate's action, Strauss will go off the payroll.

Recess Appointment

He has been serving as secretary of commerce since last November under a recess appointment made by Eisenhower while Congress was not in session.

Strauss' nomination was submitted to the Senate last Jan. 17. Opposition to it gradually gathered momentum during 16 days of stormy hearings by the Senate Commerce Committee, which last month recommended confirmation by a 9-8 vote.

Debate got under way in the Senate June 5. It went on sporadically for two weeks. Then Johnson suddenly served notice shortly after the Senate met at noon Thursday that the Democrats were ready to vote.

Fly Back To Vote

With three Republican senators away, Strauss supporters immediately began a round of delaying speeches while urgent calls were put in for the absent members.

Sens. Thurston B. Morton (R-Ky.), chairman of the GOP national committee, and Wallace F. Bennett (R-Utah) sped to Washington by plane from the West in time to vote.

However, Sen. Milton R. Young (R-ND), another supporter of Strauss, was still winging his way to the capital in a jet plane when the vote was taken.

But to balance off the absence of Young, Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) agreed to withhold his vote against Strauss in what the Senate records as a pair.

The only senator not recorded was Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.), who was reported by Senate attaches to be ill.

NEW YORK (AP) — Merger plans for Texaco and Superior Oil of California enlivened an otherwise dull and listless stock market early this afternoon.

Shares of the two big oil firms, whose combined operations would control an estimated eight per cent of the total oil production of the United States, advanced in active dealings.

NEW YORK (AP) — Texaco, Inc., is planning to purchase the Superior Oil Co. of California for the equivalent of 765 million dollars.

In a joint announcement Thursday night, Augustus C. Long, Texaco chairman, and William M. Keck, chairman of Superior, said they had reached "an understanding in principle."

The combined company would control an estimated eight per cent of the total oil production in the United States. About a year ago, Texaco passed the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey as the largest domestic producer of crude oil.

AL BALDING LEADS TOURNEY

MONTREAL (AP) — Lack of sleep and a tired feeling hardly can be recommended as a formula for winning golf but in spite of them — or maybe because of them — rangy Al Balding led the field into the second round of the 50th Canadian Open championship today.

Balding, a tall 35-year-old pro from Markham, Ont., who has had considerable success on the U.S. circuit, putted his way to a 6-under-par 66 on the soggy Islesmere course Thursday.

That put him a stroke ahead of Art Wall Jr., the leading pro money winner this year; round Bob Rossburg; Dow Finsterwald, the PGA champion, and George Bayer.

Balding said he felt "pooped" when he reached the first tee in the driving rain Thursday. Then in second thought he decided: "I guess I was just relaxed."

He explained he had gone to bed early the night before but had trouble sleeping. Then he had to get up at 6 a.m. in order not to get stuck in traffic.

removed." Then he added: "However, I am not attempting to tell the lieutenant governor what to do."

The fantastic events leading immediately to Long's detention at Mandeville began Thursday morning when the restless governor informed his wife and doctors at Ochsner Foundation Hospital in New Orleans that he planned to leave.

The governor's release from the Galveston clinic had been arranged in a compromise with Long's family and a promise that he would take at least two weeks of treatment at Ochsner.

Argue Three Hours

For three and a half hours doctors argued. Long remained adamant. This interval gave Mrs. Long time to arrange for the pickup.

When his car crossed the East Baton Rouge Parish line, deputies stopped it, then drove him to the parish courthouse. Long, growing angry, refused to move from his car. Dr. Williams and another physician interviewed the governor as he sat on the front seat smoking a cigarette and joking.

They obtained, then, an order from Dist. Judge Fred Leblanc committing the governor to the mental hospital and the fire-works really started.

Riotous Scene

The scene — shouting police, arrested newsmen, barricades and threats of camera smashing — marked back to a day long dead when Gov. Earl's elder brother, the late Huey P. Long, ran Louisiana as his own kingdom.

Dr. Williams said later that Gov. Long had thoughts and beliefs not fully based on fact. He also said he had a bad heart.

At Mandeville, Dr. Belcher said Gov. Long had been given a hasty physical and assigned to a private room in one of the hospital's 20 buildings.

In 1879, the first electric light company was formed in New York. In 1959, public utilities invested over $19,000,000 in daily newspapers to tell their service stories to their communities.

HEAVYWEIGHTS DIFFER ON WHEN TO CEASE WORK

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer
GROSSINGER, N.Y. (AP) — If ever two heavyweights approached a championship fight with more divergent methods of training than Floyd Patterson and Ingemar Johansson, it must have been when Max Baer was bewildering boxing experts.

Johansson, the Swedish challenger who'll try to lift the world title from Patterson next Thursday night, winds up the hard work of training here today.

"I finished my roadwork today, I finish my boxing tomorrow," Johansson said Thursday after a 7-round session in the ring.

"After that I just walk and rest and soak up energy."

Divergent Opinions

Patterson, in his Chatham, N.J. camp, plans to keep right on working up to the day before the fight, even though his handlers think he is close to peak form right now.

The champion did no boxing Thursday but ran four miles as usual and later went for a walk with his sparring partners. He plans to box today, Saturday, Sunday and possibly Monday. And he'll continue road work until Wednesday.

Johansson hasn't neglected boxing and road work, but his theory is that once he has achieved top condition, the relaxed approach will bring him up to the fight in better physical and mental condition.

"Getting Stronger"

"I feel myself getting stronger and stronger," he explained seriously. "I shadow box before a mirror and always see my good right hand hitting him and knocking him out. It happens again and again. It's very nice."

Mark Twain liked to travel and he summed up his wanderings with, "Nothing helps scenery like ham and eggs."

Today's Talk

HUMILITY

It is good for us to walk often among the creations of Nature. Nature is our mother, and protector. Henry Adams said: "After all, man knows mighty little, and may some day learn enough of his own ignorance to fall down and pray."

I felt my own smallness and insignificance many years ago as I stood before those great California redwood trees. Trees that were living when Christ visited this earth. I was alone but removed my hat and for a moment talked with the infinite Creator of all things. I felt so small and unimportant. In the presence of greatness, how otherwise can we feel that robed in humility?

No matter how many times I have looked into the starry night and dreamed of all that I see of familiar stars, how humble I feel! But in all nature there is such a variety of beauty that we are thrown into moods of wonder and spiritual speculation. When our Creator put His earth together He didn't expect to tear it apart to learn about all that was beneath our feet.

I am bound to greatness whenever I begin to think of all the wonderful things that were woven into a world! The tiniest creation challenges me. So does a spider's web in the morning sunshine. Every creation put into this world was done so with a purpose. The robin, happily taking to its nest—and crying babies—the fresh worms from the new soil, understands and returns her gratitude in the form of morning and evening songs.

All of these magic things in nature that we marvel at always humble the thoughtful person, I am sure.

Many of the soft noises of evening are perhaps whispers from world's beyond—even beyond the stars!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Just Be Kind"

Just Folks

SCHOOL IS OUT

Laughing lads and bright-eyed lassies,

Full of health and strength and vim,

Gayly tramping from their classes,

Some to romp and some to swim.

Hear their peals of merry laughter,

Joy is theirs, without a doubt;

What are cares that may come after?

School is out.

Free they are until September,

Three long months they have to play;

Joys they'll garner to remember

When bright youth has passed away.

Fun and frolic, joy and laughter,

Care at last is put to rout.

Hear their shouts from floor to rafters:

School is out!

Ah, you little ones, light-hearted,

Have your pleasures while you may;

On the Road of Life you've started,

Long and winding is the way.

Once you leave your youth behind you,

You'll encounter grief and doubt;

Never more this joy will find you:

School is out.

PITTSBURGH

SEMIFINALS

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — A 16-year-old Pittsburgh girl who has been playing golf "since she first learned to stand up" had her heart set today on winning the Pennsylvania Women's Amateur Championship.

Diana Hoke, a pace-setter since the 23rd annual tournament opened on Monday, was pitted against the veteran Miss Betty Fehl, of Reading's Berkshire Country Club as play on the sprawling Hershey Country Club course entered the semi-final rounds.

"I'm a little nervous but not too much," said Diana as she prepared to take on the 36-year-old Miss Fehl, a 1950 tournament winner and considered one of Pennsylvania's outstanding women golfers.

Grandad Was Golfer

Diana was at her best Thursday. She won over Mrs. John Dyson, of Hazleton, 8 and 6.

"I was happy with my game but Mrs. Dyson just had a bad day," Diana said.

The 16-year-old has trained under the watchful eye of her grandfather, Bobby Cruickshank, who was a finalist in the 1923 National Open. Cruickshank is summer pro at Pittsburgh's Charters Country Club which Diana represents in the tourney.

Her Second Tourney

"Diana has been learning the game since she first learned to stand up," said her mother, Mrs. Elsie Hoke. Mrs. Hoke's 4 and 3 loss Thursday to Miss Fehl dashed the possibility of a meeting between mother and daughter in the semifinals.

Diana is competing in her second state tourney. Two years ago at Pittsburgh, she was defeated in the finals of the championship flight's consolation match by Mrs. Dyson.

She also has been a top-flight competitor in Florida tournaments during the winter season.

"I learned everything I know from Bobby who's been training me since I was a little girl," said Diana. "I hope I can make him really happy by winning."

Other Semifinalists

The other semifinal match paired Mrs. Paul Klinefelter, of Philadelphia, and Miss Cynthia Sullivan, Harrisburg's district champion.

Mrs. Klinefelter has been playing exceptionally well since she took medalist honors on opening day. Thursday, she avenged a defeat which eliminated her from the title picture last year, winning over Mrs. John Capers, of Philadelphia, the 1954 champion, 1 up.

Miss Sullivan scored a hard-fought 2 up victory over Miss H. Marie Weiland, of Phoenixville.

Today's winners will meet to decide the championship Saturday.

The romantic problems of the three ladies (above) are posed in the Tofem Playhouse's production of "Late Love." Barbara Hall (left), TV personality and Follies showgirl, listens while Lillian Little (center) and Elena Rafael (right) discuss the news article that upsets the household. The comedy can be seen tonight and Saturday at 8:30 p.m.

BRAVES CLOSE TO DEFEAT; HAD HELD 7-0 LEAD

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves had just come close to blowing their National League lead in a most embarrassing manner when their little manager popped out of the shower drying himself in a most casual manner.

"Just another game," said Fred Haney quietly. "We've still got about a hundred of them to go."

Haney's Braves had beaten the Los Angeles Dodgers 7-6. The Braves took a 7-0 lead, then squandered all but one run of it before Don McMahon finally bailed them out with two hitless innings of relief.

"Gotta Put On Show"

And, even without allowing a hit, McMahon had his troubled moments. He came on with none out in the eighth and a man on second base with what might have been the tying run. He eventually stranded that man at third, then let the Dodgers get another runner on second in the ninth before he finally shut them off. The victory kept the Braves a half game ahead of the second-place San Francisco Giants, whom they play tonight.

All this may not have excited

Haney the way it did the crowd of 32,278, but in the last inning his bullpen was occupied by his No. 1 and No. 2 starters—Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette.

"You gotta put a show on," Haney said. "People get a kick out of seeing them out there warming up."

THREE CUBAN

FIGHTERS ON

TV TONIGHT

NEW YORK (AP)—Three undefeated Cuban fighters, with a combined record of 22 straight knockouts, display their touted kayo wallops in a mass invasion of Madison Square Garden tonight.

The three newcomers are headed by Florentino (Oxi) Fernandez, a power-packing welterweight, who meets strong-jawed, never-stopped Stefan Redl of Passaic, N.J., in the featured television 10-rounder.

The other two invaders are lightweight Douglas Vaillant and Carlos Hernandez. All three Cubans are 21 and tall. Fernandez is 5 feet 9 and the other two, 5 feet 10.

Vaillant (15-0-1, 12 Kos) meets 27-year-old Jimmy Grow (47-8-3, 33 Kos) of Lewiston, Idaho. Hernandez, a native of Venezuela, takes on Luke Easter (15-3-1, 9 Kos) of Pittsburgh. Hernandez has won all eight of his pro fights by knockouts. These two fights also are scheduled for 10 rounds.

Fernandez, bull-necked and shouldered, is rated one of the best punchers to come out of the islands. He has won all 19 of his pro fights, 17 of them by kayos, and has stopped his last 14 opponents.

Redl, stocky, 5-5, 25-year-old 147-pounder, provides a fine test for the Cuban. The German-reared Redl has a 23-3-1 record, including 13 kayos.

Only the main event will be seen on television.

Close behind with 74s were Dr. Thomas Holtzman, Hershey, and Dr. Gordon Bantshoff, Harrisburg. Each had a 37-37.

A second qualifying round and match play were scheduled for today. The finals will be held Sunday.

12-3 VICTORY

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

First place Williamsport got a rude shock Thursday night when it tried to pull away from Allentown in the Eastern League race.

The second-place Red Sox ended a four-game series with the Grays by walloping them 12-3 and reducing their lead to 1½ games.

The two teams have been battling for first place most of the season. Three home runs, including a grand slammer by Marlon King hit the other two homers.

York and Springfield split a doubleheader. The White Roses took the first game 3-2, the Giants the second 10-2. Binghamton edged Lancaster 10-8 and the Reading-Albany game was rained out.

York Has Split

York's victory snapped pitcher Vic Davis' seven-game winning streak. It was his first loss. In the second game Don Myers held the White Roses to five hits while his teammate scored five runs in the fifth. Springfield is in third place, five games behind Williamsport.

Binghamton rallied in the ninth for four runs to edge Lancaster. But the Red Roses brought about their own defeat by giving the Triplets four unearned runs during the game. Tony Asaro's homer and Leroy Thomas' triple launched the ninth inning rally.

YANKEES BEAT CHISOX; FACE INDIAN SERIES

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Editor

Cleveland steams into New York tonight for the first of four games with the Yankees in a week-end series that could jar the Indians out of the American League lead. It also could spill the Yankees off their comeback spurt from the cellar.

The Indians hold a 1½-game lead and are 3½ games ahead of the fifth place world champions. Cleveland has a 4-3 season edge over the champs who have just gained a 4-3 lead over Chicago's second place White Sox with a three-game sweep.

The Yankees, although winning four of their last six, still have pitching and fielding troubles. But their big guy, Mickey Mantle, is hitting the big home run again. The Mick, who clashed Wednesday's game with a three-run homer, ignored a taped ankle Thursday and belted a 9th-inning home for a 5-4 victory over the White Sox.

Tigers Lose Kaline

Cleveland, resting its staff for the week-end series, pitched rookie Larry Loeke at Boston, and the Red Sox ended the Indians' winning string at seven, 7-6. Detroit lost Al Kaline, blew a five-run lead, and dropped into a third place tie with Baltimore as the Orioles scored twice in the ninth for a 7-6 victory.

Harmon Killebrew regained the major league home run lead with his 23rd as Washington beat Kansas City 7-5, the A's fifth straight defeat.

Vic Wertz drove in three runs for the Red Sox, singling home the clincher in the eighth and tagging the loss on reliever Mike Garcia (0-5) in Boston's first success against Cleveland. Loeke, 25, a right-hander just up from San Diego, broke a 2-all tie with a three-run homer in the fourth. But he allowed five runs and seven of Boston's 10 hits — including fifth-inning homers by Wertz and Jackie Jensen.

Homers For Orioles

The Yankees and White Sox both blew two-run leads, Chicago with two unearned runs in the fifth against rookie Jim Bronstad, and New York with a two-run eighth that chased starter Bob Shaw.

Chico Carrasquel and Gus Triandos hit a pair of two-run homers in the eighth for the Orioles, and Chico then won it with a two-out, two-run single in the ninth. The Tigers lost Kaline when he was struck in the face by second baseman Billy Gardner's wide throw as he ran to first in the first inning. Kaline, No. 2, in the AL bat race behind teammate Harvey Kuenn, suffered a broken cheek bone and will be out from a week to 10 days.

Ernie Johnson (4-1) won it with one inning of relief for the Birds. Dave Sisler (1-1) lost it in relief. The Senators came from behind three times to beat the A's and Ray Herbert (4-6), finally clinching it in a three-run sixth when Julio Becquer's pinch double broke a 5-5 tie.

Gettysburg Little League

The Glenn L. Bream "Yankees" continued right on the heels of the league leading Lions as they captured a one-sided 14-0 decision from the Rotary, Thursday evening on the recreation field.

The win moves the Breammen to within one and a half games of first place. Mike Herring, one of the Bream's front line hurlers, went the distance, allowing one hit, one walk and eight strikeouts to rack up his second win against one setback. The only Rotary player to get a hit off Herring was Dick Smith whose line drive through second base came in the third inning.

Plenty of power came from the bats of Mike Herring and Mike Treas. Herring not only pitched his way to victory but also hit hard. He collected three safeties for four trips to the plate and drove in four runs to bring his season's total to eight. Treas, a husky first baseman, bombarded the outfield with three tremendous clouts. In the first inning he lined a double to deep center, singled in the third, then blasted one of the longest homers in Little League history in the fifth. After the game, officials estimated the ball had carried 290 feet to the edge of the parking lot in centerfield.

The Rotary outfit was unable to get a man as far as second base due to fine defensive work. Bruce Garrett started on the mound for the Rotary and needed help from Dan Sanders in the fifth. Garrett is charged with the loss.

BRAVES EDGE DODGERS AS GIANTS WIN

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee's battered Braves, still breathing hard after almost blowing a seven-run lead at Los Angeles, trudge into San Francisco with a half-game National League lead tonight for the opener of a three-game set against the Giants.

The Braves clung to the lead with a 7-6 victory over the Dodgers Thursday night after the Giants had rapped Cincinnati 8-3 in an afternoon game.

It was only the second victory in five games for the Giants, who have picked up two games on the Braves while playing no better than .500 ball in their last 18 decisions. The main menace to Milwaukee's bid for a third straight pennant at the moment is the Braves own sorry slump. They've lost 10 of 16, 12 of 21 and seven of their last 11.

Pirates Keep Moving

While the Braves and Giants have been shadow boxing, Pittsburgh's third place Pirates have been on the move. They made it six out of eight Thursday, beating the Chicago Cubs 4-2 in 13 innings in the only game scheduled as unbeaten reliever Elroy Face won his 11th.

The Braves, who won only two of the five games at Los Angeles, built a 7-0 lead in four innings. The Dodgers got to work in their fourth, scoring three on four hits and a walk that chased Bob Rush. Bob Throwbridge gave up a two-run, 400-foot homer by Duke Snider, in the sixth, then needed Don McMahon's relief after the dodgers scored another in the eighth on Wally Moon's third hit, a double. McMahon finally saved it for Throwbridge, gaining his first decision, by fanning Moon in the ninth with the tying run on second.

Stu Miller Wins

Orlando Cepeda, 4-for-5 and picking up nine points for a .345 average, drove in the Giants' first two runs and scored another in a decisive, three-run fifth after the Reds had gained a 2-2 tie. Jackie Brandt's two-run double capped the rally that handed Joe Nuxhall a 3-5 record.

Stu Miller (4-3) won it, although giving up five hits in his 4 1-3 innings of relief.

An RBI single by Bob Skinner and Bill Virdon's sacrifice fly did it for the Pirates. Their other runs came in the seventh on Dick Stuart's pinch-hit homer after Cub starter Moe Drabowsky had allowed only one hit for six innings. Face, the majors' top winner and now 16-0 since May 30, 1958, blanked the Cubs on three singles in a five-inning job, his longest chore of the season.

Upper Adams Pony League

The York Springs Giants kept up their unbeaten pace in the Upper Adams Pony League by defeating the Arendtsville White Sox 11-5 at York Springs Thursday evening for their fourth straight win.

Tom Hardy, the winning pitcher, fanned 12 and walked six. Naylor and Redman pitched for the losers and the latter whiffed 10 and issued five passes.

Pastor Tells Of Work With Children

REV. J. Z. MARTIN, PASTOR

New Oxford Charge of the United Church of Christ St. Paul's, New Oxford Emmanuel, Abbottstown

During this week I have spent more time with more children than I had worked with for fifty weeks. You guessed it—Vacation Church Schools have provided this happy privilege.

Let me tell you about some of these youngsters. One boy was standing on the steps of a church in our neighborhood about a half hour before the opening bell the other morning. A group of kindergarten pupils in another church surprised me with the neatness of their painting enterprise. Several classes of juniors have been quite excited about their discoveries in exploring some of the natural beauty which surrounds them. A visit to the vicinity of an apartment house of purple martins, a collection of insects, one contribution in the form of a turtle, observing a young pheasant, work with leaves and many other activities have helped to make this week an enlarging experience for these boys and girls.

Undoubtedly, many of the readers of this newspaper have been participating in this kind of work this week. Many others are engaged in working with groups of children during nine months of the year. Many are parents of children.

"Precious Gifts Of God"

Are we always aware of everything we see when we look at a child? Are the children with whom we come in contact inspiring a sense of awe within us? Do we really recognize them as precious gifts from God? Do we appreciate fully the wonder of their creation? Does the average person begin to see the real potential of the children in our families and communities?

Certainly, there is room for awe and thanksgiving as we think of children as wonderful gifts from God, and persons having a sense of imagination, wonder, excitement and the ability to enjoy group experiences. There is a place in our thinking for deep humility as we approach our responsibilities as adults in home, in church and in community. There is a reason to proceed with faith, believing in God's noble purpose for His children. There is reason to stick to the fulfillment of this purpose with patience and perseverance.

The Master spoke to disciples centuries ago and He speaks to us today, saying "Let the children come to me . . . for such belongs the kingdom of God." It is within this relationship with Jesus Christ that our highest hopes for the children in our communities and around the world can be fulfilled.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

When I walk out of my front door, it always gives me a good feeling to see the spire of the church down the street.

A church spire makes you look upward. You have an irresistible urge to gaze at its highest point. It is a lofty symbol, the physical manifestation of an ideal.

Sometimes, when I step through my front door, my thoughts are on the "down" side. Then I look toward the church, my eyes travel to the sky, and I feel better, no matter what my troubles.

Next time you're near a church — try it and see. Better still, try going inside.

Agent Advises On Tomato Spraying

Early blight is present in most tomato fields, Frank S. Zettie, county agent, advises growers in his first tomato spray information letter of the current season.

Anthracoise causes a considerable loss of fruit every season, Zettie says. Late blight, he adds, has not been found in fields as yet but will appear if prolonged wet weather occurs. The agent suggests that Maneb is an effective material for these and other tomato diseases. Dyrene, a newer material, also has given good results, he reports.

Zettie recommends spraying fields when the first fruit sets and continuing at 10-day intervals. To control hornworm, the larvae of which are appearing in most tomato fields, addition of TDE (Rhothane) to the spray for the first application is recommended.

Use of three pounds per acre of either Maneb 70 or 80 per cent WP or Dyrene 76 per cent WP is recommended plus two pounds of TDE in the first application only.

The spray letter was prepared in consultation with Carlton F. Taylor, extension plant pathologist, and John O. Pepper, extension entomologist.

World Briefs

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—An unidentified flying object—visible to the naked eye but not to radar—streaked across Nevada skies Tuesday night.

It was the third mysterious sighting in three weeks. The Air Force said none of the objects sighted could have been planes.

YOKOSUKA, Japan (AP)—"I didn't mind being shot up half as much as I did having my second class rating shot off my arm," Donald E. Corder told fellow crew members of the U.S. Navy patrol plane attacked by Communist MIGs Tuesday.

Corder, 20, from Jacksonville and Farmer City, Ill., was the only member of the 14-man crew injured in the attack.

He was promoted to aviation electronics mate 2nd class on the morning before the flight.

PHILS OUTHIT
CARDS BUT ARE SHORT ON RUNS

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Even the Philadelphia Phillies, who are used to outhitting the teams that beat them, are awed by their latest performance.

In three games with the St. Louis Cardinals they got 36 hits and eight walks, but they scored only seven runs.

They outhit the Cards 11-8 in the second game Tuesday night, but they lost 5-2, and they outhit them 15-10 Wednesday night, but they lost 10-4.

33 Runners Stranded
Only in Tuesday night's first game did the Cards outhit the Phillies. And Philadelphia lost that one 8-1.

As usual, the big reason for this paradox is: The Phillies left 33 runners stranded in the three-game series.

"If anyone predicted we'd run up those sort of statistics and fail to win, I'd have said they were crazy," said Manager Eddie Sawyer.

Gas House Gang There
There was a measure of humiliation in Wednesday night's defeat because the Cards' famous Gas House Gang of 1934 was watching the performance.

"They're not that bad a ball club; they couldn't be," said one of the oldtimers.

But bad or good the Phillies are now 4½ games out of seventh place.

4 Philly Errors
While Richie Ashburn and Joe Koppe were going 3-4 and 3-5, respectively—raising their batting averages but not their RBI averages—the Cards were capitaliz-

CONSTITUTION IS DESIGNED TO FUSE CHURCHES

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—A constitution designed to unify two Protestant denominations was released Thursday. It provides for regulation at the top and freedom at the bottom.

The document, proposed for the new United Church of Christ, has been a matter of keen interest.

In setting forth a joint structure for the two bodies—the loosely knit Congregational Christian churches and the centrally organized Evangelical and Reformed Church—it combines elements of both.

Crucial Point
It guarantees the autonomy of any congregation or local church in the management of its own affairs—including property, worship, and hiring or dismissal of pastors. This has been a crucial point for the Congregationalists, some of whom have opposed the merger on the ground it might impair their traditional independence.

The constitution was drafted by a 30-member commission, headed by the Rev. Dr. Gerhard W. Grauer of Chicago.

It was mailed to delegates in advance of the United Church's forthcoming general synod July 5-9 at Oberlin, Ohio, so they would have it in hand by the time it was made public today.

It must be approved by that meeting, and then by two-thirds of the Evangelical and Reformed regional synods, and two-thirds of the individual Congregational churches voting to become effective.

Together, the two denominations include more than two million members.

The constitution specifies that its provisions define and regulate the national church functions, but only describe the free and voluntary relationships of the local churches and regional groups.

The score was tied 3-3 until the fifth when St. Louis scored five runs. Two of them were unearned, thanks to four Philadelphia errors.

The Phillies scored three runs in the second and another in the sixth with Ed Bouchee, Gene Freese and Humberto Robinson driving them in.

Rookie Marshall Bridges won his first major league game, holding the Phillies to one run and four hits for the last 6-1-3 innings after he relieved Larry Jackson. Robinson, who relieved Ray Semproch, suffered his first loss in two decisions. He was followed by three more pitchers.

Cattle Research Bill
Proposed By House

HARRISBURG (AP)—Appropriations to Pennsylvania State University and the University of Pennsylvania for research into bovine mastitis, a cattle disease, were proposed in the House Wednesday.

Reps. John Stewart Jr. (R-Phila.), E. Gadd Snider (D-Fayette) and Alan D. Williams Jr. (R-Butte) proposed $170,000 for Penn's School of Veterinary Medicine and $250,000 for Penn State's School of Agriculture.

SEEK PACT IN LAND DISPUTE

GUATEMALA (AP)—The government and the United Fruit Co. expect a settlement to be worked out for squatters who have built on the company's land near the northeastern village of Entre Rios.

The total area involved is about 55 acres. Some residents have been on the property for 30 years. Rumors recently spread that the company plans to evict them, but William Taillon, United Fruit's manager in Guatemala, denied this and blamed the rumor on agitators.

President Miguel Ydigoras said Wednesday night he will try to determine whether the company will donate the land to the settlers. If not, he said, the government will try to buy the land for them at a fair price. If United Fruit's price is too high, he added, the government will expropriate the land and set its own price.

Taillon said the company wants to settle the dispute satisfactorily.

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A handcuffed youth broke away from police and ducked into a culvert for a three-hour chase through a maze of storm sewers Tuesday.

John Soares, 19, of Oakland, was recaptured when he emerged, covered with muck and exhausted. More than 50 officers guarded manholes in the area or joined the underground force while the pursuit was on.

Soares is charged with statutory rape of a 17-year-old girl from nearby Hayward.

BABYLON, N.Y. (AP)—Thomas I. Parkinson, 77, former chairman of the Equitable Life Assurance Society, died Wednesday after suffering a stroke at his home. He retired in 1954.

churches and regional groups. thus, in general, the traditional Evangelical and Reformed system is applied in the upper church echelons, while the customary Congregational freedoms are retained at the lower level.

BECK DENIES ANY WRONG IN
$200,000 LOAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Teamsters President Dave Beck and two trucking company officials have denied there was anything wrong in a $200,000 loan made to Beck by the other two while he headed the Teamsters Union.

Indicted Wednesday by a federal grand jury were Beck, 64; Roy Fruehauf, president of the Fruehauf Trailer Co. of Detroit; and Burge Seymour of New Preston, Conn., president of Associated Transport, Inc., New York.

Fruehauf and Seymour said the loan, since repaid, was made to Beck because he had previously made them loans when they needed them.

Charge Violation
The indictment charged them with violation of the Taft-Hartley Act, one section of which prohibits union officers from accepting payments from management officials, and vice versa.

The $200,000 payment was made to Beck in 1954. In Seattle Wednesday Beck had no comment. His attorney, Charles S. Burdell, said that "naturally we'll fight this charge."

Burdell indicated he would seek postponement of the June 24 date on which Beck is expected to make his plea.

Letter To The Editor

The Gettysburg Times

Recently Mrs. Campion and I rented a room motel on Route 15.

We consider the price $13.46 too high and doubt if we will come again. However, on trying to sleep we found that the mattress on the larger bed so hard, in fact so hard, we might have slept on the floor. For the price we paid there should have been decent accommodations. We protest against this.

Editor:
The Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Penna.
Dear Sir:

Recently I spent a week in your city and hope you can print this letter in your "Letter To The Editor" section so I may, in a small way, thank the people of Gettysburg who by their graciousness and helpfulness made my stay so memorable.

I have traveled in many sections of the United States but have never before met such warm, outgoing people as I encountered, without exception, in Gettysburg. Their eagerness to be of help, their pride in their community and its history and their genuine friendliness is something I shall always remember.

I especially want to extend my thanks to Mrs. Huffman, Messrs. Sheads, Tilberg, Gilbert and Haines for their help and assistance. Space would not allow me to mention the many others, but I am sure they each know my gratitude.

You may all be proud of Gettysburg, its beauty, its historical significance, and most of all, its people.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Shirley Lueder

Speedy Trial, Pauper's Grave For Coyle Brothers

WAREHAM, Mass. (AP) — After exchanging shots with two policemen who tried to nab them for robbing a nearby liquor store and firing a shot into the store's counter, As they fled they abandoned a hostage they had held captive, nearly foodless, for 10 days.

John Coyle, 24, charged with killing a Philadelphia policeman, said he was ready to return to Philadelphia voluntarily to face trial.

A court arraignment on local charges was considered routine before Coyle is brought back too Philadelphia in shackles.

Fatally Wounded
Coyle's younger brother, William, 22, was mortally wounded by police in an exchange of gunfire at the edge of a Middleboro cranberry bog Wednesday.

John dropped his two guns and surrendered when 12 state troopers, all with guns blazing, pumped four bullets into the younger Coyle.

Each of the Coyle brothers had fired on the police with guns in both hands, but none of the troopers was touched.

Ended Big Manhunt
The gunfight ended one of the most intensive manhunts in Massachusetts history. More than 300 policemen had kept the Coyle brothers in a five-square-mile swampy woodland since last Monday.

They had fled into the woods

after exchanging shots with two policemen who tried to nab them for robbing a nearby liquor store and firing a shot into the store's counter, As they fled they abandoned a hostage they had held captive, nearly foodless, for 10 days.

William Sedgwick, 49, said he had been grabbed in Philadelphia June 6, and driven in his car, while tied in the back seat, to Massachusetts.

Killed Policeman
Police said the Coyle brothers were fleeing after they had shot to death Patrolman James Kane, 27, who had spotted the brothers stealing milk from front porches.

The surviving brother showed no remorse when informed William was dead. He told police: "Well, you killed him, you worry about burying him. We have no relatives."

The end of the long manhunt came when Walter Schmidt of Union City, N.J., glanced out the window of his mother-in-law's home and saw a man crawling in nearby brush. Schmidt telephoned police.

PRESBYTERIAN SYNOD FAVORS BIRTH CONTROL

GROVE CITY, Pa. (AP) — A proposal endorsing planned parenthood has been approved by the Synod of Pennsylvania, United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

The synod also agreed Wednesday at its annual meeting to share in the costs of a $1,229,000 United Church Center which is to be built by the Pennsylvania Council of Churches in Harrisburg.

The synod asked the 15 Presbyteries to recommend a 50-cent contribution from each of some 325,000 church members over a three-year period.

Adopt Resolutions
The churches had been asked to pledge $261,992 toward the construction project. Some $50,688 has been raised to date.

The synod also: Passed a resolution objecting to the sale of beer and liquor in hotels up to 2 a.m. and from 1 p.m. to 10 p.m. on Sundays; urged support of a Senate bill forbidding Sunday sales of "specified, unnecessary merchandise"; appealed to all parties in the steel negotiations to act with fairness and responsibility.

Reaffirmed its support of the State Equal Rights Council; cited the Lord's Day Alliance of Pennsylvania and the Sabbath Assn. of western Pennsylvania for their efforts against unnecessary labor and commercialized amusements on Sunday; commended the action of the Mt. Lebanon Presbyterian Church in offering a post Dr. Robert B. McNeill, who was dismissed from his pastorate in Columbus, Ga., for making a statement in favor of integration.

CABINET URGES MORE TRAINING

HARRISBURG (AP) — Three members of Gov. Lawrence's cabinet see expansion of Pennsylvania's vocational training program was one way to combat unemployment in the state.

The view was expressed Wednesday by Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of the Public Instruction Department; William L. Batt Jr., labor and industry secretary; and William R. Davin, commerce secretary.

They asked Lawrence to expand vocational training and based their request on a study of exist-

WOMAN JUROR TIPS VERDICT TO LIBERACE

By DENNIS NEEDLE
LONDON (AP) — A gray-haired woman member of the jury that awarded Liberace libel damages of $8,000 pounds—$22,400—against a British newspaper turned up at his hotel afterward and told newsmen she thought he was wonderful — "a real smasher."

Three minutes before the high court verdict was announced Wednesday, the woman, Mrs. Jean Friend, 49, had given the American piano player a broad wink to tip him off that he had won his suit against the Daily Mirror.

"Woman in Liberace jury sensation," headlined the Daily Herald.

Takes 3 Hours
Mrs. Friend's wink came as the court reassembled to hear the verdict. The jury was out 3 hours and 22 minutes.

Liberace, wearing a subdued dark gray suit and a patterned gray silk tie, swept in with his entourage. He was mopping his brow with a monogrammed handkerchief.

His gaze traveled over the 10 men and 2 women in the jury box. In the front row sat Mrs. Friend.

Tip Off Verdict
She smiled, winked and nodded. Then she mouthed silently: "It's all right." Murmurs of "He's won" ran through the courtroom.

Three tense minutes ticked by before the official announcement that the jury had found that a column in the tabloid Daily Mirror by William N. Connor had implied Liberace was homosexual.

Liberace announced he was "delighted my reputation has been vindicated."

Paper To Appeal
The Mirror announced it will file an appeal. It devoted three full pages to a factual report of the verdict, including a photograph of a smiling Liberace. But there was no editorial comment. There was also no mention of Mrs. Friend.

After the verdict Liberace hurried through a throng of women fans, some of whom cried, "Well done." He was driven to the nearby Savoy Hotel and immediately telephoned the good news to his mother in California.

Downstairs in the Savoy grill Mrs. Friend and two companions were having tea.

"I just wanted to shake Liberace's hand and congratulate him," she told newsmen.

But when she called his hotel room, he had left to appear at a ing facilities by Kenneth E. Carl, director of the Williamsport Technical Institute.

The report concluded that local school districts could begin immediate expansion programs in their areas. It also urged expansion and establishment of more area technical schools and junior colleges to provide further vocational training.

Do Not Want White House Conference

NEW YORK (AP) — Top negotiators for the steel industry and union say they would rather work out a contract settlement here themselves than be called to the White House for talks.

The statement was made by David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers of America, and R. Conrad Cooper, chief negotiator for the 12 largest steel companies and executive vice president of the United States Steel Corp.

McDonald and Cooper expressed the view after being informed of President Eisenhower's declaration at a news conference Wednesday that he did not intend to call union and management representatives to the White House in a move to prevent a strike.

THREE BOMBS ROCK HAVANA

HAVANA (AP) — Three bombs exploded in Havana Wednesday night during a television appearance by Prime Minister Fidel Castro.

Castro during his telecast made no mention of the bombings, which occurred in areas of the city away from the TV studio.

There were no reports of injuries or damages from the bombings, which were reminiscent of tactics used by Castro's underground during the terrorist campaign in Havana against President Fulgencio Batista.

Castro told his TV audience he would unmask elements of the press he accused of campaigning against his government.

Obviously nettled by editorial and other criticism of his land redistribution program, he said the newspapers would prefer to forget the "corrupt past and all the immoralities of past governments."

He did not explain what action

he plans against the press. But he said a million rural residents would be brought to Havana soon for a rally in support of agrarian reform.

HALLECK ASKS CONGRESS TO QUIT STALLING

WASHINGTON (AP) — House Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana has urged Democratic leaders of Congress to "quit stalling around" and adjourn Congress by the end of July.

They can do this, he said in an interview, "if they abandon some of the half-baked proposals they have advanced and enact the sound and forward-looking program of President Eisenhower."

"We Republicans aren't in the majority so we don't have much control of what happens," Halleck said. "But there is no reason why we shouldn't get out of here by the end of July, the date set in the reorganization law enacted by the Democrat-controlled 79th Congress."

Democratic leaders speak hopefully of closing up the legislative shop around the middle of August, although Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas has hinted of possible September sessions.

Johnson, linked by attempts of Republicans to label the 86th Congress as a "big spending, do-nothing" Congress, said recently that perhaps in late September the record will show that it is a "do-something Congress."

THANK YOU, MRS. NEVINS

CUMBERLAND, R.I. (AP) — For several days the 84 boys and girls "graduating" from a kindergarten class were drilled to say "thank you, Mr. Nevins," when Superintendent Vincent Nevins presented them diplomas.

But Nevins was unable to attend the ceremony Wednesday and Miss Lillian I. Hannan, the principal substituted for him.

The first 83 children in line said "Thank you, Mr. Nevins," when Miss Hannan presented the diplomas.

The 84th said, "Thank you, Mrs. Nevins."

Would Revive Bundling Bed

CHICAGO (AP) — An Oshkosh, Wis., bed manufacturer says he has the answer to the old single bed vs. double bed controversy.

What is needed, he says, is a revival of the bundling bed of New England Puritan days with its center board separating bed-mates.

History has it that early American courting couples seeking warmth slipped into the bed fully dressed on opposite sides of the center board.

The manufacturer, showing a pilot model at the Chicago furniture show, says: "The bundling bed may very well add up to a happy medium in the battle between twin and double beds."

POSTCARDITIS IS TOURISTS' WORST MANIA

By HAL BOYLE

PARIS (AP)—There is one disease that, sooner or later, strikes all tourists abroad.

It is known medically as "postcarditis."

The symptom is simple and unmistakable. The victim suddenly is swept by an inexplicable urge to write postcards to the folks back home.

How It Starts

You and your wife are making a trip to Europe after saving for 20 years. You are having a fine time seeing the sights until one day you pick a postcard off a rack.

"I think I'll mail this to Joe at the office. It'll make him turn green with envy," you say.

And the wife says, "That's not a bad idea. I think I'll mail one myself to our next door neighbor."

Take Fatal Step

You don't know it then, but you and your wife already have taken the fatal step. Writing just one postcard is as impossible as eating only a single peanut at a cocktail party.

You go to the top of the Eiffel Tower, but neither you nor your wife have time to look at the splendid view of Paris. You are too busy selecting splendid postcards and scribbling "Having most wonderful time. Miss you terribly."

You go to the Louvre and tell the guide, "Never mind Mona Lisa and the Venus de Milo. Show us the postcard counter."

Worse Than Opium

You are both now in the grip of a mania more insidious than addiction to the bottle or the opium pipe.

"We've written to all our relatives and friends," says the wife.

Whitney Meets With Harold Macmillan

LONDON (AP)—U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney met Wednesday with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan as rumors swept London that a meeting between the British leader and President Eisenhower is imminent.

Official government sources declined to disclose the nature of the talk, but they insisted there is no plan for Macmillan and Eisenhower to meet at this time.

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Mme. Chiang Kai-shek returned to Taipei today, just three days short of 13 months from the time she left for the United States for medical treatments. President Chiang, other Chinese Nationalist leaders, and U.S. officials met her at the Taipei airport.

ORT LAMY, Chad (AP)—Francois Tombalbaye of the pro-French Democratic African Rally party has been named premier of the semi-independent Chad Republic.

"Who'll we write to now?" "Our enemies," you say, reaching for another postcard. Madness Disappears

Then one morning it is all over. You awake feeling guilty and suffering from a bad case of writer's cramp. You can't look at another postcard. The madness is gone.

So you cable the boss for passage money, and you and your wife take the next plane or ship home.

But the first thing you do is start looking up all the people you wrote to.

"We sure had a great time," you say.

Then you add: "By the way, have you still got any of those postcards we sent you? We want to see what Europe really looks like."

The secret is—if you want to see Europe with your own eyes while you are still there—never write that first postcard home.

DEDICATE NEW PITT BRIDGE

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Gov. Lawrence Thursday called the new Fort Pitt Bridge "a testimonial in steel and concrete to the rebirth of the City of Pittsburgh."

He said the new span—built to relieve traffic congestion in the city—is only part of an extensive program to improve Pennsylvania's highway system. The bridge was dedicated today.

He mentioned the proposed Keystone Shortway from Sharon to Stroudsburg and the Anthracite Expressway through the center of the state as major projects on the drawing boards.

"Pennsylvania must, and will, continue to lead the nation in the excellence of its highways," said Lawrence. "These highways help make Pennsylvania the arsenal of democracy in time of national emergency. They will assure the flow of Pennsylvania products to a waiting world in time of peace and progress."

FAVOR OUTER SPACE AGENCY

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Central Pennsylvania Methodists feel the State Department should support a plan to set up an agency within the United Nations for "co-operative and controlled use of outer space."

The stand was taken Wednesday at the opening of the 91st annual Central Pennsylvania Conference of Methodist Ministers and Laymen.

Delegates also urged that "all peace loving nations, who agree to sign the charter of the United Nations, be admitted to membership."

Some 500 ministerial and lay representatives attending the conference elected the Rev. Dr. F. Lamong Henninger, Harrisburg district superintendent, to head a delegation to the church general conference in Denver next fall.

Two other ministers elected as delegates were the Rev. Dr. Robert R. Croyle, Altoona district superintendent, and the Rev. Dr. Charles F. Berkheimer, pastor of the Methodist Church in Milton.

A fourth minister and lay delegates will be elected later.

MADRID, Spain (AP)—Spanish Communist failed Thursday in their attempt to stage a 24-hour general strike in protest against the regime of Generalissimo Francisco Franco. Reports from labor centers throughout the nation showed even less absentees from work than normally.

Blue Cross Decision On Rate Boost Near

HARRISBURG (AP)—State Insurance Commissioner Francis R. Smith expects to decide within a few days how much of a rate increase to grant four major Blue Cross plans in Pennsylvania.

As hearings ended on the applications Wednesday, Smith left little doubt that he would approve a major portion, if not all, of the additional revenue asked by each of the plans. They serve a majority of the state's pre-paid hospital insurance subscribers.

Smith said the plans were in "an economic squeeze" and faced the prospect of going out of business if increases are rejected.

Seeking rate boosts are the Hospital Service Assn. of Western Pennsylvania, the Associated Hospital Service of Philadelphia, The Capital Hospital Service, Harrisburg, and the Hospital Service Assn. of Northeastern Pennsylvania, Wilkes-Barre.

TV NETWORKS COVER SEAWAY DEDICATION

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—If there's anything the special events department of a television network likes, it's an orderly current event on which cameras can be trained in advance and the juice turned on when the scheduled action starts.

That's why congressional hearings, political conventions, coronations, ship-launchings and such are so often covered.

Most grand opening ceremonies, alas, are neither important enough nor of sufficient interest to warrant expensive TV coverage. But next week a ribbon-snipping of major magnitude will take place, so important that Queen Elizabeth II of England and President Dwight D. Eisenhower will take part. And the networks' cameras will be very much in evidence.

The event is, of course, the dedication ceremonies of the great St. Lawrence Seaway next Friday. CBS will start broadcasting the big event first—at 10 a.m.—showing films of the Seaway and covering the ceremonies live. At 11 a.m., ABC will start an hour's live show of the ceremonies from St. Lambert Lock near Montreal, N.B., concerned with the working classes who might miss the sights of the goings on at 8 p.m., using video tape, film and diagrams and pre-empting Ellery Queen's time to do it in. (All times Eastern Daylight.)

But the programs of the seven days preceding promise to be routine when they are not reruns. Those who failed to catch the original showing of the "Maverick" show by Marion Hargrove which kidded its fellow western, "Gunsmoke," might make a special effort to see the repeat Sunday night (ABC, 7:30-8:30) when Gunshy will pit Bret Maverick against Marshal Mort Dooley.

APALACHIN'S HOST IS DEAD; NEVER GAVE UP HIS SECRETS

JOHNSON CITY, N.Y. (AP)—The man who played host to one of the largest gatherings of gangsters in the annals of crime in this country died Wednesday night.

Joseph Barbara, who suffered a heart attack May 27, carried with him to the grave another key to the mysterious meeting of 60-odd hoodlums and friends at Apalachin, N.Y., on Nov. 14, 1957.

The 53-year-old, short, once-swarthy, bespectacled Barbara, shriveled and paled by illness, had lived on the fringes of death since he fell unconscious at his home in nearby Endicott May 29.

He lost the fight for his life at 7:35 p.m. But he won his fight never to divulge the sinister meanings behind the crime cabal at his plush, hilltop estate.

Despite repeated efforts to have him break his silence, Barbara evaded questioning by pleading illness.

Only last April it looked as though state investigators finally had him cornered. A State Supreme Court justice ordered Barbara, ill or not, to testify before the State Investigation Commission, an agency that has managed to jail some of the delegates to the underworld meeting for refusal to talk. No date was set for Barbara's hearing, however.

Died During Visit

In his only public appearance after the gangland meeting, Barbara, looking drawn and haggard, sat silently in a wheelchair in U.S. Dist. Court in Syracuse April 27 while his attorney entered an innocent plea for him to charges of evading payment of nearly $40,000 in federal taxes.

Barbara died in Wilson Memorial Hospital during a routine visit by his wife, two sons, and a daughter.

Barbara had suffered a heart attack prior to the gangster convention at his home in 1957. In fact, many delegates to the meeting maintained they had visited Barbara only to see "a sick friend."

His only conviction came in 1946 days preceding promise to be routine when they are not reruns. Those who failed to catch the original showing of the "Maverick" show by Marion Hargrove which kidded its fellow western, "Gunsmoke," might make a special effort to see the repeat Sunday night (ABC, 7:30-8:30) when Gunshy will pit Bret Maverick against Marshal Mort Dooley.

when he was fined $5,000 for illegal acquisition of sugar. He operated a soft-drink bottling business in Endicott and also distributed beer.

The first faint suspicions of the meeting were aroused on Nov. 13 when an alert state trooper, Sgt. Edgar D. Crosswell, noticed several big, flashy cars cruising into tiny Apalachin, 15 miles west of Binghamton, in south-central New York.

Nobody Talked

The next day, while the "boys" whooped it up around a barbecue, Crosswell, a Treasury agent and a group of troopers blocked off the road leading to Barbara's isolated estate.

The gay pinickers, bewildered by the sudden raid, galloped for cover. But 60 were rounded up, and a flock of investigations soon got underway. However, the boys all adhered to the code of the underworld: don't talk.

APPEAL RULING

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—Two officials of Local 613, International Union of Electrical Workers, have filed an appeal with the State Supreme Court against a ruling citing them for civil contempt of court.

The contempt citation stemmed from a charge by the Erie Resistor Corp. that the union had violated an Erie County Court order restricting picketing at the company's four strike-bound plants here.

DEAF MAN MARKETS LOW COST HEARING AID

Mr. H. A. Lyons who himself has been hard of hearing for over 25 years, announced that he will distribute a new hearing aid discovery that is considerably less than the cost of comparable aids.

This new discovery comes in several different styles. There is one streamlined model for eyeglasses, one worn as a barrette for a woman's hair, and a very minute model worn behind the ear.

Mr. Lyons says, "I am interested in seeing that more and more hard of hearing persons get good hearing like myself. The low cost and superior hearing of this new discovery will bring security and happiness to many persons who feel they cannot afford the cost of higher priced aids."

If interested for yourself or a friend, write Mr. H. A. Lyons, 2625 Cedar Ave., Minneapolis 7, Minn. He will send you full information.

Ditzler's Music Supplies On Baltimore St. Is Being Run By Musical Family

One of Gettysburg's best known musical families is in the music business again.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Ditzler Jr., 54 E. Water St., opened their new business, Ditzler's Music Supplies, at 12 Baltimore St., late in April and have stocked a very complete supply of music instruments, records of all kinds, sheet music, instruction books for pupils of the piano and most other instruments, mutes, lyres and most supplies needed by most instrumentalists and record fans. They also stock transistor and other radios in well known brand names.

What they don't have in stock, they'll gladly order—and the service is quick and inexpensive.

Well Known Musician

The family's previous experience in the music business came several years ago when they devoted part of their residence on York St. to a music shop and operated a hustling business for two and a half years.

Mr. Ditzler, who has been well known in musical circles for many years, conducted his own orchestra for about 15 years part of the time under the name of the Clavolines, a five-piece band that played many engagements in Gettysburg and other county communities.

For five years they were regular

Saturday night musicians for the dances at the Eagles home here.

The Ditzlers' 16-year-old son, Charles, is a specialist on the guitar and ukulele and a talented player of the sax and clarinet.

Store Open Daily

The older son, Ronald, a music major at Gettysburg College, is a vocalist and pianist. He carried off many vocal music honors as a student at Gettysburg High School. Thirteen-year-old Peggy is taking piano lessons and may one day take her place among the musicians of the Ditzler family.

The store is open daily from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. six days a week at the former site of the Bender Cut Rate Store which has moved across the street to the former Dougherty and Hartley building. Easy terms and convenient financing are special attractions offered by the Ditzlers to their customers for guitars and record players or any other musical instrument customers call for. The stock of record players is to be expanded and will start at $39.95. They will range up into the more expensive hi-fi equipment.

Have Know-How

The wide stock of music supplies includes Thompson and Shum piano instruction books and Shum sheet music. There are sheet music arrangements too for various instruments with piano accompaniments. Books of classical selections, old time favorites and hit tunes are on the shelves at Ditzler's too.

Mr. Ditzler, who is adept on any string instrument, including the piano, heads a musical family that is qualified and able to serve music needs of their customers in the community through their new place of business.

The fight starts when a shipment of lobsters from Doris Day is mishandled as a result of railroad tycoon Kovacs' penny-pinching; Doris wants triple damages, suits and wins. This is too much for Kovacs; he plans an appeal. Doris and her lawyer, Lemmon, attach one of Kovacs' locomotives. Kovacs promptly gives the dilapidated old engine to the girl but he just as promptly charges her rent when it remains on his tracks. To raise the money, Doris goes on network television.

From here on in, "It Happened to Jane" reportedly gets wilder and funnier by the minute. Or, since a railroad is involved, by the mile!

Seases Are Proprietors At 'Charlie's'

A good place for a sandwich, a snack or a full-course dinner is Charlie's Diner at 90 Buford Ave.

From 6 a.m. to 7:30 p.m. six days a week, tasty, home-cooked foods are on sale at the diner for local customers and a steady trade of tourists that find the early opening hours convenient for early starts on their travels.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Sease of Knoxlyn are the proprietors of the restaurant which has operated under its new management since April 16. Mrs. Ethel Sease and her daughter, Mrs. Kathleen Benner, were in charge of the kitchen for the first month or more but now Mrs. Benner has moved to Oklahoma with her husband who is in the armed forces.

Mrs. Benner's place on the staff at Charlie's Diner has been taken by Mrs. Fern Sease, daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sease. Now "Ethel and Fern" are in charge of turning out the tasty dishes that are listed daily on the varied menu there.

The diner, which for years operated under the name of Butt's diner, was run by Mrs. Amos Biglham and her son under the name of "Cookie's Diner" before the Seases took over this spring.

They cater to hometown folk as well as travelers with their invitation to stop in any time for a snack or a dinner.

Fondness For Fine Autos His Undoing

REDWOOD CITY, Calif. (AP)—Carl H. Franklin, a paroled convict, is back in jail because of his fondness for fine cars.

He was arrested Thursday after Patrolman Maynard Enos saw him driving a $12,000 Rolls Royce astride the center driving strip near Menlo Park.

Franklin, booked on charges of auto theft, parole violation and drunken driving, said that he had parked his 1954 car next to the British car in a tavern parking lot.

Democrats Say Hearings Fail To Prove Charges Against State's DPI

HARRISBURG (AP) — Democratic members of a Senate committee investigating the Public Instruction Department contend that public hearings have failed to prove charges of mismanagement against the department.

Sen. Harry E. Seyler (D-York) claimed the department had been completely vindicated Wednesday as the five-member committee called a halt to its three-month investigation.

Sen. Jo Hays (D-Centre) said he was gratified with the outcome and felt the hearings had shown there was no basis for the charges.

Wade Made Charges
The investigation started after Sen. George N. Wade (R-Cumberland) charged mismanagement and unauthorized spending. Wade later was named committee chairman.

After Wednesday's hearing, Wade said the session was presumed to be the last. He said a decision on the committee's report and recommendations would be made in executive sessions.

Dr. Charles H. Boehm, superintendent of public instruction, was the first and last witness called by the committee. He spent several hours going over policies and objectives and legislative changes which he said are needed to improve educational programs. Boehm said many of the present programs are pathetically inadequate.

"The state, including the General Assembly, should become more concerned with the quality of our educational programs. If it does, it will earmark—in subsidies that go to local districts—more funds than at present to reward districts for quality programs," he said, adding:

"Local option has been a right exercised by many districts to maintain poor and inadequate schools as well as to provide good schools."

"Similarly, the General Assembly should give immediate attention to encourage cooperative action by school districts and counties in jointly modernizing their programs in educational television and film libraries. Without such cooperative action enormous waste will occur."

Boehm recommended that the state subsidize special programs such as education for the emotionally and socially disturbed, disciplinary schools and students who are unable to speak English.

He also recommended that the state change parts of the subsidy program for new school buildings. Legislation is being prepared, he said, which would progressively reduce state aid for new buildings as the cost per pupil rises above the average cost of the two previous years.

The superintendent said the proposed amendment is specifically designed to discourage luxury school buildings.

Bucks A Trend
Another change Boehm recommended would give the State Council of Education power to require standardized classrooms. He said the suggestion was in the interest of economy although he was "aware of the fact that his bucking the trend in the country."

Boehm told newsmen after the hearing that he felt "the experience of the study committee has been a very good one for us."

"The problems of education have received wider attention than they would have otherwise," he added.

Hays said he "felt from the beginning that if the department were given adequate chance to tell its story, the basic charges would not be substantiated. In my opinion, they weren't."

Sen. Thomas A. Ehrgood (R-Lebanon) said he felt the hearings had been "tremendously worthwhile."

"From the first day to the ending my eyes have been opened by information presented in the hearings. Problems and possible solutions were brought forth which I never understood before."

Questioned about the charges, Ehrgood said he thought there had been "evidence of inefficiency," but said he felt it was due to the hugeness of the department.

Letter To The Editor

June 16, 1959
Editor
The Gettysburg Times
Gettysburg, Penna.

The writer was involved in an automobile accident in the City of Gettysburg on Sunday, June 14th. An accident of this nature of course is unpleasant for reference. However, I would like to express my sentiments for the community services rendered at this time. The prompt service of the residents at the intersection of Howard and West Middle Streets in contacting the local police and ambulance facilities.

I wish to thank the ambulance crew for taking my son, Marvin Angle, to the Annie M. Warner Hospital for treatment. Also, to the hospital staff a sincere thank you for the prompt professional services rendered him. Lest I forget, the generosity of Mr. and Mrs. Paul G. Pensinger, 456 W. Middle St., for their help and assistance at the time of the accident and for the transportation of all occupants of my car to Boonsboro, Maryland.

To all of the above, I again take this opportunity to thank you for your splendid courtesy and hospitality to unknown residents of your neighboring state. I am sure the officials of Gettysburg are proud to have civic organizations and residents as mentioned above.

Very truly yours,
Glen M. Angle

COMPROMISE HOUSING BILL MAY SUIT IKE

WASHINGTON (AP) — Leading Democratic and Republican Senate spokesmen on housing legislation said today a compromise $3,375,000,000 housing bill should win the approval of President Eisenhower.

Senate-House conferees agreed on the omnibus bill Thursday after the Democratic majority had cut the amount sharply to blunt GOP charges that the Democrats are reckless spenders.

Sen. John J. Sparkman (D-Ala.), chairman, and Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.), senior Republican on the Senate's Housing subcommittee, both said they did not see why Eisenhower could not sign it.

Assailed By Some
Both houses must approve the compromise before it is sent to the President.

Some Republicans on the conference committee assailed the compromise and insisted it still went beyond the President's recommendations in many respects. Their attitude left in doubt the eventual fate of the bill.

The conference report is scheduled to be called up first in the Senate, probably early next week. The compromise contains large grant authorizations for government-sponsored housing programs. It also has many provisions designed to help private homebuilding industry. These include 10 billion dollars of new insurance authority for FHA home loans, liberalized down payments for FHA mortgages and longer term Veterans' Administration mortgages.
